In an effort to increase our membership and prepare our organization for the next 100 years, what are some concrete examples of how we can approach younger people about becoming Lions?
Lions are beginning to engage more on social media, and online meeting platforms like Zoom have become almost a new normal. How do we ensure that members who don't have the technology or are not technology savvy still feel included?
Mail in Question

Do you think the current situation will affect retention with everything going on in the world? What can we do to help prevent the loss of clubs and members?
What advice can you provide to clubs to still recruit new members?
