

JE-GIL GOO
INTERNATIONAL DIRECTOR

Je-Gil Goo, from Gwangju, Republic of Korea was elected to serve a two-year term as international director of Lions Clubs International at the association's 103rd International Convention, June 25 through June 29, 2021.

Director Goo is a medical doctor and has been CEO of Sejong Geriatric Hospital for nine years.

He joined Lions Clubs in 1992 as a member of the Choongjang Lions Club. He has held a number of offices within the association including district governor and LCIF district coordinator. He has also served as a board appointee in 2020-2021 as well as multiple district public relations and Lions information chairperson.

In recognition of his service, he has received numerous awards including a District Governor excellence award, numerous International President's Awards and an Ambassador of Good Will Award, the highest honor the association bestows upon its members. He is also a Progressive Melvin Jones Fellow.

In addition to his Lions activities, Director Goo is active in several social organizations and serves as co-chair for the Gwangju Citizen/Social Organization Association and president of the Gwangju Honor Society. He has been honored by the South Korean Ministry of Health and Welfare is the recipient of a Presidential Award from the president of South Korea.