

KENJI NAGATA
INTERNATIONAL DIRECTOR

Kenji Nagata, from Kyoto, Japan was elected to serve a two-year term as international director of Lions Clubs International at the association's 103rd International Convention, June 25 through June 29, 2021.

Director Nagata has been a dentist for 48 years and is director of the Nagata Orthodontic Office.

He joined Lions Clubs in 1988 as a member of the Kyoto Rakuyo Lions Club, and has since held a number of offices within the association including district governor, LCIF district coordinator, and district family and women membership development chairperson. He has also served as multiple district information technology chairperson and multiple district public relations and Lions information chairperson.

In recognition of his service, he has received numerous awards including several Presidential Certificates of Appreciation and numerous International President's Awards. Director Nagata is a Progressive Melvin Jones Fellow.

In addition to his Lions activities Director Nagata has been active in numerous professional organizations including serving as eye bank management committee president from 2019-2021, president for the Biopgressive Study Club for 20 years, and as an associate for the Dr. Gugino Course since 1985.