

J. FRANK MOORE III
PAST INTERNATIONAL PRESIDENT

J. Frank Moore III, of Daleville, Alabama, USA, was elected to serve as international president of Lions Clubs International at the association's 84th International Convention in Indianapolis, Indiana, USA, July 2 through 6, 2001.

Past President Moore is an educator by profession and a former superintendent of education for the Daleville City Schools in Daleville, Alabama, USA.

Past President Moore has held key leadership positions in Lions International, most recently serving as the Executive Administrator & Secretary of the association from 2017-2021. He served as chairperson of the Centennial Action Committee that oversaw the four-year celebration of the association's first century of service, vice chairperson of Campaign SightFirst II—the most successful fundraising initiative in the history of the Lions Clubs International Foundation—and is currently serving as the vice chairperson of Campaign 100, the LCIF campaign to raise $300 million to support our global causes.

Past President Moore has received numerous awards in recognition of his service to the association, including the Friends of Humanity Award presented by Lions Clubs International Foundation, and the Ambassador of Good Will Award, the highest honor the association bestows upon its members. He is also an LCIF Humanitarian Partner.

In addition to his Lions activities, he is active in numerous professional and community organizations. He is a member of the Army Aviation Museum Foundation Board of Directors, a certified lay speaker for the United Methodist Church and is treasurer of his church. He is also a former chief executive officer of the Association of the United States Army.

Past President Moore and wife, Rita, also a Lion and Melvin Jones Fellow, have two daughters and a son—who also are Lions—and seven grandchildren.
