

New Member Guide

The power of you is endless.

Welcome to a global community of kindness.

Congratulations—you're officially a Leo! So what does this mean? You're now part of an international family of young women and men dedicated to making a positive impact in communities across the globe.

Leos take the future into their own hands.

Leadership, experience, opportunity. This is the Leo motto. Now that you're a member, you will have the chance to gain a number of important life skills while serving your community and the world.

Leadership

Developing your skills as a project organizer, time manager and team leader.

Experience

Discovering how teamwork and cooperation can bring positive changes to your community

Opportunity

Creating lifelong connections and seeing your impact through community service.

Get started.

- 1 Connect with other Leos
Build relationships within your club by sharing your story and getting to know your fellow members.
- 2 Get involved in service
Sign up for your next club project so you can start making a difference and having fun.
- 3 Sign up for a Lion Portal account
In the Lion Portal, you can take leadership trainings and see your club's information.
- 4 Follow Leos Around the world
Follow the Leo Facebook page and other Lions social media platforms. Check out the Lions Clubs website to get updates on Leo resources and read successful service stories on the Lions Blog.
