

SANDRO CASTELLANA
PAST INTERNATIONAL DIRECTOR

Sandro Castellana from Padova, Italy, was elected to serve a two-year term as a director of Lions Clubs International at the association's 100th International Convention held in Chicago, Illinois, USA, June 30 through July 4, 2017. He served on the Convention Committee and Leadership Development Committee as well as on the Executive Committee from 2018-2019.

Past Director Castellana served as secretary of the Lions Clubs International Foundation (LCIF) Executive Committee from 2019-2021. He was appointed as a trustee to LCIF from 2019-2022 for Constitutional Area IV, serving on the Development Committee, Programs Committee and Audit Committee.

Past Director Castellana is an IT consultant.

A member of the Abano Terme Euganee Lions Club since 1997, he has held many offices within the association, including club president, district governor, zone chairperson, multiple district GLT coordinator and GLT area leader.

In recognition of his service to the association, Past Director Castellana has received numerous awards, including several International President's Awards and the Ambassador of Good Will Award, the highest honor the association bestows upon its members. He is also a Progressive Melvin Jones Fellow.

In addition to his Lions activities, Past Director Castellana has been active in professional and community organizations, including as vice president of the Italian Heart Transplant Association.

Past Director Castellana's wife, Anna, is also a Lion and a Progressive Melvin Jones Fellow.