

PEDRO CRISÓSTOMO
INTERNATIONAL DIRECTOR

Pedro Crisóstomo, from Castelo Branco, Portugal, was elected to serve a two-year term as an international director of Lions Clubs International at the association's 108th international convention in Hong Kong, China that was held July 3, 2026, through July 7, 2026.

Director Crisóstomo is a distinguished dental surgeon and leader, with a degree in dentistry from Universidade Medicina Dentariat and a postgraduate specialization in implantology. As CEO and clinical director of his practice, he has over two decades of professional experience in the healthcare sector and has been recognized for academic excellence. Director Crisóstomo combines his clinical expertise with civic engagement, having served as president of a professional school and led local commercial and municipal organizations.

A Lion since 1992, Director Crisóstomo is currently an active member of the Castelo Branco Centro Lions Club. He has held numerous club and district leadership positions focusing on membership, leadership development and service activities. He has served as a Global Leadership Team (GLT) coordinator and as an LCIF coordinator, supporting leadership training and humanitarian fundraising efforts. Internationally, he has served as a Global Action Team (GAT) area leader, contributing to global action and coordination.

Director Crisóstomo's service has been widely recognized across all levels of Lions: Club Excellence Awards, District Excellence Awards and recognition, multiple Presidential Medals, an International Peace Award and he is a 3-Diamond Melvin Jones Fellow. His wife, Lion Ana, accompanies him in Lion activities and travel, and the couple has two children.
