

RAJINDER "PAPE" SEMBI
INTERNATIONAL DIRECTOR

Rajinder Singh Sembi, affectionately known as “Papé,” of Kakamega, Kenya, was elected to serve a two-year term as an international director of Lions Clubs International at the association’s 108th international convention in Hong Kong, China, July 3 through July 7, 2026.

Director Sembi is managing director of Holden Investments Ltd., where he oversees commercial property, retail leasing and agricultural operations. He has 20 years of experience as a commercial landlord and previously owned and managed a timber sawmill and motor vehicle garage.

A Lion since 1992, Director Sembi is a member of the Kakamega Lions Club. He has held a number of offices within the association, including club president, district governor, multiple council chairperson, CSF I & II Sector coordinator, Global Leadership Team constitutional area leader for Africa and Global Action Team area leader for Area E.

In recognition of his service, Director Sembi has received numerous awards, including International President’s Certificates of Appreciation, Leadership Medals, multiple Presidential Medals and Founders Membership Growth awards. He is also a three-diamond Melvin Jones Fellow.

In addition to his Lion activities, he has served in leadership roles with several civic, education, health care, business and sports organizations.

Director Sembi and his spouse, Amarpreet Kaur Sembi, a past district governor and three-diamond Melvin Jones Fellow, have two sons, a daughter-in-law and a granddaughter. His sons and daughter-in-law are Lions.
