CAMPUS LIONS CLUBS

Who are Lions?

Lions work together to take on the challenges faced in communities around the world. With more than 1 million members and counting in 45,000+ clubs in 200 countries and regions, Lions Clubs International is the world's largest service club organization.

Lions answer the call to service

Here's just a snapshot of the work Lions around the world are doing:

- Offer outreach to victims of natural disasters
- Support children with cancer and their families
- Partner with drug prevention programs
- Develop environmental and green initiatives
- Implement diabetes education and support programs
- Advocate for equity and human rights
- Partner with the Special Olympics

How will you answer the call to serve as a #ProudLion?
