

DANIEL ISENRICH
PAST INTERNATIONAL DIRECTOR

Daniel Isenrich, from Munich, Germany, was elected to serve as international director of Lions Clubs International at the association's 102nd international convention, held in Milan, Italy, July 5 through July 9, 2019.

Past Director Isenrich holds a bachelor's degree in professional accounting and worked for over 28 years as finance and strategy director at Kraft Foods International. Since 2012, he has been the owner and managing director of the BrainClix and isiTrade companies.

A Lion since 1993, Past Director Isenrich is a charter member of the Zurich-Witikon Lions Club in Switzerland and became an honorary member in December 2024. When he relocated to Germany in 1995, he joined the München-Heinrich der Löwe Lions Club. He has held multiple offices in his district and multiple district and chaired the German Lions reorganization team.

Past Director Isenrich served on the Global Membership Team and as a Lions Clubs International Foundation area leader. In 2022, he was elected as financial controller of the Europa Forum and is a member of the Long-Range Planning Committee Europe. He is a board member of the German Lions Foundation and is the appointed representative to the United Nations (UNHCR).

Past Director Isenrich has received multiple International President's Awards as well as an International President's Leadership Award. He is also a Progressive Melvin Jones Fellow and an Ambassador of Good Will.

Past Director Isenrich and his wife, Biggi, also a Lion, have four children and two grandchildren.