

JÜRIG VOGT INTERNATIONAL DIRECTOR

Jürg Vogt from Steffisburg, Switzerland was elected to serve a two-year term as a director of Lions Clubs International at the association's 104th International Convention, June 24 through June 28, 2022.

Director Vogt successfully led a family-owned business company, where he managed more than 70 employees during his 30 year career. Now, he is partially retired but still works as the owner and sales director of Vogt-CTE GmbH, a distributor of firefighting, search and rescue equipment to first responders around the world.

He is currently a member of the Lausanne Epicurien Lions Club. He first became a Lion in 1987 after joining the Aaretal Lions Club. And in 2009 he became a transfer charter member of the Stockhorn Lions Club. He has held a number of offices within the association including multiple district council chairperson and vice president and program director of the Europa forum Montreux.

In recognition of his service to the association, he has received numerous awards including an International President's Awards. He is also a Progressive Melvin Jones Fellow.

In addition to his Lions activities, Director Vogt is active in numerous professional and community organizations. He served as a captain in the Swiss Army until 1999, and has special firefighter tunnel ventilation experience.
