Why Report Service?
Benefits of Reporting Service

How do clubs and districts individually benefit from reporting service?

- Reporting service helps transfer knowledge and best practices to your club’s future leaders.
- Reporting service is a matter of local pride. Reporting puts your club on the map as leaders in your local community, and it’s an important way to share success with other clubs in your district and around the world.
- A high percentage of clubs reporting service is a sign of a healthy district.
- Reporting service allows you to become eligible for service awards.
Benefits of Reporting Service

How do clubs and districts collectively benefit from reporting service?

- Reporting shines a light on how and where local clubs are making a difference. This elevates the profile of Lions Clubs International as a global service club organization.

- Service reports provide tangible evidence of our global engagement and impact to prospective partners of Lions Clubs International. These relationships strengthen the organization and yield benefits at the local level.

- People want to participate in real, visible change. Service reporting allows clubs to continually engage communities, tell stories more effectively and ultimately grow their member base.
Benefits of Reporting Service

How does reporting service benefit the people we serve?

- Service data helps everyone understand the needs of communities around the world and how our Lions and Leos are serving those needs. Reporting service helps transfer knowledge and best practices to your club’s future leaders.

- Service data enables Lions Clubs International to identify best practices that can be shared globally.

- Service reports show how Lions and Leos around the world are using funds from Lions Clubs International Foundation grants to serve their communities. This visibility encourages Lions and Leos to think creatively about their own projects and apply for LCIF grants themselves.
Reporting is considered service in itself. The time clubs and districts spend reporting their service are considered volunteer hours, and can be reported in MyLion.

How Lions and Leos Measure Their Service Impact

Metrics allow all Lions and Leos around the world to report their service, and to see how local service adds up to make a huge global impact. The metrics used to measure success depend on the type of service.

Calculating the number of People Served

LCI provides guidelines to ensure that service reporting is accurate and consistent. However, Lions and Leos are the true experts in their service, and as such should rely on their own experience when measuring service impact and encouraged to work with local experts whenever possible.
Calculating the Number of People Served

1. Determine if People Served is a required metric for your activity. People Served is only required for service activities. There are many situations where a club, district or multiple district may want to report People Served as an optional metric.

2. Determine if the People Served can be directly counted. If so, be sure to keep a record during the service activity, such as a sheet. If not, you will need to estimate.

3. Determine if your activity is a one-time activity, a recurring activity, or an ongoing activity, and report beneficiaries accordingly.
   - One-time activities serve beneficiaries one time, and end when the project is completed.
   - Recurring activities are those that regularly repeat, such as cleaning up a highway once a month.
