

LEWIS QUINN
PAST INTERNATIONAL DIRECTOR

Lewis Quinn from Anchorage, Alaska, USA, was elected to serve a two-year term as a director of Lions Clubs International at the association's 98th International Convention held in Honolulu, Hawaii, June 26 through 30, 2015.

Director Quinn, a former business owner specializing in sales and marketing, is retired.

A member of the Anchorage Captain Cook Lions Club since 1987, he has held many offices within the association, including club president, district governor and zone chairperson. Past Director Quinn was appointed to a three-year term as trustee for the Lions Clubs International Foundation in 2019-2020. In addition to his local service, he also participated in the development of the LCI Forward long-range plan and the 2021 Lions Clubs International strategic plan.

In recognition of his service to the association, he has received numerous awards, including the Membership Key Award, Ambassador of Good Will Award, which is the highest honor the association bestows upon its members, and several Presidential awards. He is also a Progressive Melvin Jones Fellow.

In addition to his Lions activities, Director Quinn has been active in numerous professional and community organizations, including the Salvation Army, the Anchorage Chamber of Commerce, United Way, the American Society of Interior Designers and Special Olympics of Alaska.

Director Quinn and his wife, Gayle, also a Lion and a Progressive Melvin Jones Fellow, have two sons, both who are past presidents of their Lions clubs.
