Start your day with a breakfast at La Sucrerie de la Montagne, an authentic sugar shack located about an hour’s drive from Montréal. The hosts of La Sucrerie de la Montagne recreated the rural setting of the last century, with authentic barn wood buildings and field stone ovens. The hearty traditional “family style” menu is yours to eat as much as you like. Québec folklore at its best!

After breakfast, head up to Parc Omega, where you will discover Canada’s wildlife such as moose, elk, bison, wolves and bears all within their natural environment. Upon arrival at the park, you will board the Omega bus and drive around the 15 km marked path with the animal guide, specifically trained for sharing their knowledges about the beautiful species and quickly spot the ones that are usually difficult to see.
